

Program Support Internship Description

Free Minds Book Club & Writing Workshop works to introduce youth incarcerated as adults at the DC Jail to the transformative power of books and creative writing. We are currently seeking a dedicated and enthusiastic individual to serve as Program Support Intern. This position is a great fit for students interested in prison justice, education, creative writing, social justice, or event planning.

This position is for 10-20 hours each week, and we can be somewhat flexible on scheduling. This internship offers a unique chance to make a direct and meaningful impact in the lives of young people and in the larger DC community, using the innovative tools of books and poetry.

Internship available starting in September. Start/end dates are flexible but we ask for at least a 3-month commitment. Applications accepted until position is filled. Please visit www.freemindsbookclub.org for more information on our programs.
